My dear Mr. Secretary:-

The Attorney General has committed to me in his absence the consideration of the current Japanese representations from a legal point of view. I have your note to him of yesterday with the accompanying documents. I enclose a copy of a telegram received this morning from the United States Attorney at San Francisco in reply to Mr. Moody's telegram to him of yesterday, of which you were advised. Awaiting your further advices, I remain,

Very sincerely yours,

Hon. Elihu Root,

Secretary of State.
