Treatment of Japanese in California.
Encl. 24-25. Alameda, California
Oct. 27, 1906.

E.R. Deming.

Gives his views as to the causes of the present anti-Japanese agitation in California. Names especially De Young of the San Francisco Chronicle. Explains the political aims and office-holders of California. Urges the admission of Japs and Chinese to American citizenship, stating that they are better qualified to be citizens than many of the European immigrants. Encloses a clipping from the San Francisco Chronicle showing its pernicious tendencies in the matter. Referred to Dept. by the President.
