especially interested in the effort of the San Francisco authorities to exclude the Japanese from the public schools, or to establish separate schools. It cannot be possible that Japan will tamely submit to such an act or to submit, would be to concede the contention of racial inferiority. In this case Art. 6 of the Constitution is successfully applied and we will have accomplished

More towards solving the so called "Race Problem" of the south, than all the steamships together since the death of Lincoln. God grant that it may be so. A crisis is near at hand, it is the duty of the government to meet it, the awakening manhood of the black is surging against the unnatural barriers a white oligarchy places in his way. A matchless
