November 20, 1906.

Jacob H. Denenholz, Esquire,
350 Broadway,
New York City.

Sir:

I have to acknowledge, with thanks, the receipt of your letter of the 12th instant, enclosing a copy of a statement of your views regarding the status and treatment of Japanese in the United States, which you sent to the editor of the New York "Evening Sun," in response to an intimation which appeared in that paper on the 10th instant.

Any question arising in this regard receive careful consideration by this Department, in the light of law, treaties, and international comity.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

ALVEY A. ADEE,

Second Assistant Secretary.
