 DEPT. OF STATE

My Dear Mr. Secretary:-

I understood the Attorney General yesterday to say that upon the initiation of this Japanese matter with him - that is, two or three days ago, he had written a letter to Devlin, the United States Attorney at San Francisco, - that is, previous to his telegram to Devlin of yesterday. His personal and confidential files here do not reveal any copy of that letter. Have you a copy of it, and if so, can you conveniently send me a copy by bearer? I wish to add that I fully appreciate the important and confidential character of the subject in all its bearings.

Very sincerely yours,

W. H. Taft

Hon. Elihu Root,
 Secretary of State.
