

Office of the Attorney General,
Washington, D.C.

December 26, 1906.

My dear Mr. Secretary:

I have your note of the 24th instant in reference to the San Francisco situation. District Attorney Devlin is now on his way and as soon as he arrives in Washington I will make arrangements for a full conference on the subject matter.

Very sincerely yours,

Charles J. Bonaparte

To the Honorable
The Secretary of State.
