February 19, 1907.

William Draper Lewis, Esquire,

Dean, Law Department, University of Pennsylvania,

34th and Chestnut Streets, Phila., Penna.

Sir:

I have to acknowledge the receipt, through reference hither by the President, of your letter to him of the 7th instant, transmitting a copy of a pamphlet containing an article written by you entitled "Can the United States by Treaty Confer on Japanese Residents in California the Right to Attend the public Schools?"

In reply I have to inform you that your letter and the pamphlet have been placed on the Department's files.

Thanking you for your courtesy,

I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

ALVEY A. ADEE,

Second Assistant

Secretary.
