Dear Root

THE PEOPLE'S INSTITUTE

318 EAST FIFTEENTH STREET
NEW YORK

Feb. 13, 1907.

Mr. William Loeb,

My dear Mr. Loeb:-

I have not had any word from Root, and hardly know whether it is wiser to go ahead or to wait. I presume the best course is to wait. I should be glad to have advice from you. I do not wish to embarrass in the least degree the Administration at this juncture.

Sincerely yours,

Charles D. Root
