February 16, 1907.

My dear Mr. Loeb:

I have to acknowledge the receipt, through reference hither by you, of Mr. Charles Sprague Smith's letter to you of the 13th instant, stating that this Department had not answered his letter of the 4th instant, on the subject of a public demonstration, by means of a great mass meeting, of the cordiality of feeling between the United States and Japan.

Mr. Smith's previous letter was answered on the 12th instant and he has been so informed this day.

Very truly yours,

ELIHU ROOT

Wm. Loeb, Esquire,

Secretary to the President.
