

List of newspaper clippings accompanying the Attorney General's Letter to the Department of State, dated November 30, 1906, (Case No. 1797 - 181-187). These clippings were returned to the Attorney General on March 28, 1907. J.T.C.

Newspaper clipping (paper not named) containing "Minutes of the Japanese and Korean Exclusion League, Woodworkers' Hall, Twenty-second and Folsom Streets, San Francisco, October 28, 1906".

From San Francisco "Call", October 22, 1906, entitled "The Japanese and the Schools".

From San Francisco "Call" November 5, 1906, two clippings, one entitled "Japanese Resume Court Action", and the other "Protests against the Japanese".

From San Francisco "Chronicle", Nov. 8, 1906, two clippings, one entitled "The Japanese Question. The Unjust and even Outrageous Comments of Some Eastern Papers", and the other, "Wants to Test the State Law".

From same, Nov. ~~10~~, 10, 1906, two clippings, one entitled "Good Advice to Japanese", and the other "Social Rights are Involved".

From

From "The Argonaut", Nov. 10, 1906, one clipping, entitled
"The Japanese in our Schools".

From the S. Francisco "Call", Nov. 13, 1906, one clipping, entitled "The Japanese Diplomatic Game".

From the S. Francisco "Chronicle", Nov. 11 and 13, 1906, two clippings, entitled, respectively, "Our Japanese Colony", and "Japanese Arming".

From the same. Nov. 14 and 20, 1906, two clippings, entitled, respectively, "Japanese Exclusion. It is a subject whose earnest discussion no Power can Stop", and "Japanese Exclusion. The Question of Restricting Coolie Immigration to come before Congress".

From S. Francisco "Call", Nov. 15, 1906, one clipping entitled
"The Japanese Intrusion".

From S. Francisco "Town Talk", no date given, one clipping, entitled "The Eastern Idea of the Japanese".
