COPIES

SAN FRANCISCO POLICE DEPARTMENT,

Police District No. 2, Southern Station,

May 20th, 1907.

To Thomas Duke,

Captain of Police.

Sir:--I respectfully report the following:

At 9:30 P. M., this date, Frank Tatsumy, who runs the Horse Shoe Restaurant at No. 1213 Folsom street, reported to me that three men started a row with some customers who had just left his place, a crowd gathered and began to throw rocks at the place and completely demolished the front of the place. The Folsom St. Bath House, also run by Japanese at #1214 Folsom st., was fired at with rocks and five panes of glass were broken in the front. Mr. Tatsumy informed the trouble occurred about 8 P. M. Detectives O'Connell and Gopf are investigating the matter.

(Signed) LOUIS H. MEYER,

Police Officer.
