MEMORANDUM.

Sept 5. 1907

Dear Mr. Secretary

I think you will wish to read this, - the latest mail despatch from Wright on the Japanese question.

The last paragraph, the supposed Japanese army officer was a restaurant waiter in Sunkieps. The war dept investigated his status and as reported.

Am. Consulate Gen'l (Sarrone) #9.

Reports in regard to the presence in Korea of Frederick McGormick and Joshua Kingsley Ohl, representing the Associated Press and the New York Herald, respectively.

Gives details concerning conversation, which he had with Margus Ito, during which the latter explained his reasons for believing that the U. S. would not go to war with Japan.
