

"Japan Times", July 21, 1907.

U. S. AND JAPAN.

The New York World has a semi-official declaration that Pres. Roosevelt does not know anything of an American squadron being ordered to the Pacific. It is not yet settled where the naval manoeuvres this year will take place.

At San Francisco a more friendly feeling is being shown towards the Japanese. Financial circles oppose any immigration law which discriminates against them.