

Boston Chamber of Commerce.

Boston, Mass. September 4, 1907

Hon. Elihu Root,
Secretary of State,
Washington, D.C.

Sir:-

I have the honor to enclose, herewith, copy of preamble and resolutions adopted by the Board of Directors of the Boston Chamber of Commerce, at their meeting held Tuesday, August 27th, 1907.

Yours respectfully,

David D. Munn
Secretary.

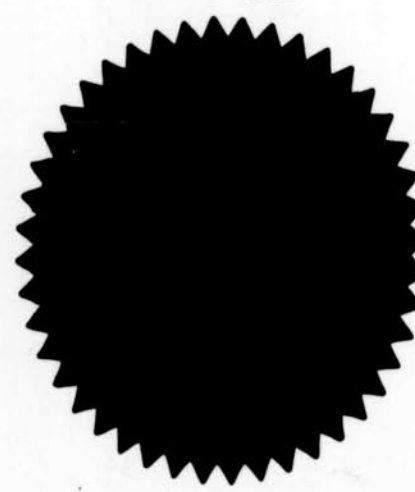

The Directors of the Boston Chamber of Commerce at their monthly meeting, held August 27th, 1907, adopted the following preamble and resolutions:

Whereas, recent occurrences in some parts of our Country have threatened to disturb the friendly relations heretofore existing between the citizens of the United States and those of Japan;

RESOLVED: That the Directors of the Boston Chamber of Commerce hereby desire to be put on record as deprecating any agitation which may tend to cause ill feeling between the two countries, and they are strongly opposed to any and all legislation intended to discriminate against Japan or her citizens. On the contrary, they believe that every effort should be made to cultivate and promote the most intimate commercial relations between the two countries and that all privileges enjoyed by the most favored nations should continue to be extended to the Japanese.

A true Copy;

Attest:
Daniel D. Morse
Secretary.
