Office of the Attorney General,
Washington, D. C.

September 26, 1907.

The Honorable,
The Secretary of State.

Sir:

I have the honor to enclose self-explanatory correspondence relative to the desire of State Senator William H. Phipps, of Wisconsin, to secure some information with relation to the Japanese agitation in San Francisco last spring. I shall be glad to forward to Mr. Jenkins, in accordance with his request, any information that you may deem it advisable to furnish to Mr. Phipps.

Very respectfully,
Charles Donaparte,
Attorney General.
