OFFICE OF POLICE COMMISSIONERS

San Francisco, September 20, 1907.

Hon. James Devlin,

U. S. District Attorney,

Post Office Building, City.

Dear Sir:

Some time ago you took up with this office the matter of several Japanese who were refused permits as Intelligence Office Keepers by the Board of Police Commissioners, with the view of communicating the facts to the authorities in Washington.

We respectfully request, at your earliest convenience, to inform us just how far you have gone in this matter, and the status of the inquiries made by your Office up to the present time.

Yours respectfully,

THE BOARD OF POLICE COMMISSIONERS

By CHAS. F. SKELLY
SECRETARY

Licensing of Japanese Employment
Agencies in San Francisco.

Encl. 348-346. October 18, 1907.

Department of Justice.

Transmits copies of correspondence exchanged by Dep't of Justice, the U. S. Attorney at San Francisco, and the Board of Police Commissioners of San Francisco, in regard to the complaints of discrimination against the Japanese in San Francisco in the matter of licensing employment agencies.
