Office of the Attorney General,
Washington, D.C.

October 29, 1907.

Hon. Elihu Root,
Secretary of State.

My dear Mr. Secretary:

I enclose herewith a copy of the answer in the case of Y. Eimoto against the City and County of San Francisco, this being the case growing out of the attack on the premises occupied by certain Japanese; also a copy of a letter received from the United States Attorney at San Francisco on the subject of the application of Japanese for licenses to conduct intelligence offices in San Francisco. Will you not be good enough to return to me the copy of the answer, when you have finished with it?

Yours very truly,

Charles Bonaparte
Attorney General.
