

DEPARTMENT OF STATE.
WASHINGTON.

Personal.

July 6, 1907.

My dear Mr. Secretary:

I beg leave to transmit copies of memoranda which I have to-day prepared for the Acting Secretary but which involve several points which you will doubtless have to pass upon.

I have suggested to Mr. Bacon that the memoranda marked "No. 1" and "No. 2" might be convenient to the President if placed before him before his meeting with Admiral the Baron Yamamoto.

Trusting that you are enjoying your absence from Washington, I remain, my dear Mr. Secretary,

Yours sincerely,

Montgomery Wilson

The Honorable Elihu Root,

The Secretary of State,

Clinton, New York.
