

July 6, 1907.

Dear Mr. Bacon:

Here are memoranda about Japanese matters which I submit for your information.

Those marked "No. 1" and "No. 2" might be convenient to the President if laid before him before his meeting with Admiral the Baron Yamamoto.

I sent the Secretary carbon copies with a personal note, a copy of which is also herewith.

HW