

Office of the Attorney General,
Washington, D. C.

November 11, 1907.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of State.

✓ Sir:

I have the honor to enclose herewith a self-explanatory letter and clippings, which have been forwarded to the Department by the United States Attorney at San Francisco, and which you may care to see. Will you kindly return the same when you have completed your use of them?

Very respectfully,

Charles J. Bonaparte,
Attorney General.