Department of State, Washington.

Washington, D. C.

Sir:

We have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter dated October 8, 1907. in reply to ours of June 29th last.

It is a source of profound satisfaction to note that our appeal has been received with so high sense of justice and equity, and that you are prepared to direct your efforts for the maintenance of the relations of perfect understanding between the U. S. A. and Japan and for the promotion of the common interests by which the two nations are closely united. We are convinced that the friendly assurances contained in your letter under acknowledgement have produced the best impression in the public mind in this country. In thanking you sincerely for such a frank and candid exposition of your views we venture to express the hope that hereafter a similar exchange of views and mutual
