

10, 1907.

My dear Mr. Secretary:

Unless you decide to dissuade the Japanese Ambassador from visiting San Francisco while such turbulent conditions still prevail there, it seems important to take measures to prevent any mishap. With that end in view, I have the honor to submit herewith drafts of letters to the Governor of California and to the Secretary of the Treasury.

Treatment of Japanese in California

Encl. 454.

Oyster Bay, N.Y., July 13, 1907.

The President (Loeb)
Asst. Secretary of State and says that Secretary Root should be advised at once to get in touch with the New York Chamber of Commerce. Expresses the President's disappointment in the showing of the failure to reduce Japanese immigration here,
and says that Secretary Metcalf can do nothing with De Young or the California anti-exclusion men.
